

RN Learning System Nursing Care Of Children Practice Quiz Answer Key PDF 1

RN Learning System Nursing Care Of Children Practice Quiz Answer Key PDF 1

Disclaimer: The rn learning system nursing care of children practice quiz answer key pdf 1 was generated with the help of StudyBlaze AI. Please be aware that AI can make mistakes. Please consult your teacher if you're unsure about your solution or think there might have been a mistake. Or reach out directly to the StudyBlaze team at max@studyblaze.io.

Which vaccine is typically administered to children at birth?

- A. MMR (Measles, Mumps, Rubella)
- B. Varicella
- C. Hepatitis B ✓
- D. DTaP (Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis)

Describe the steps a nurse should take when they suspect a child is being abused.

1. Ensure the child's immediate safety. 2. Document observations and any disclosures made by the child. 3. Report suspicions to the appropriate authorities as per local laws and hospital policy. 4. Provide support to the child and maintain confidentiality.

What are the key differences in communication strategies when interacting with toddlers versus adolescents?

Key differences in communication strategies include using simple, clear language and visual cues for toddlers, whereas for adolescents, it is important to use more complex language, engage in active listening, and respect their autonomy.

Explain the importance of involving families in the pediatric care process.

Families play a vital role in the pediatric care process by providing essential information about the child's history, preferences, and behaviors, which helps healthcare providers deliver more effective and personalized care.

At what age should a child typically be able to tie their shoelaces?

- A. 2 years
- B. 3 years

C. 5 years ✓

D. 7 years

Which of the following are common signs of dehydration in children? (Select all that apply)

A. Sunken eyes ✓

B. Increased urination

C. Dry mouth ✓

D. Lethargy ✓

What is the legal requirement for reporting suspected child abuse?

A. It is optional for healthcare providers

B. It is mandatory for all citizens

C. It is mandatory for healthcare providers ✓

D. It is only required if the child confirms the abuse

What is the most common cause of dehydration in infants?

A. Overfeeding

B. Diarrhea ✓

C. Excessively sweating

D. Lack of sleep

Which strategies are effective for preventing common injuries in children? (Select all that apply)

A. Using car seats ✓

B. Encouraging rough play

C. Installing safety gates ✓

D. Providing constant supervision ✓

Which factors should be considered when calculating medication dosages for children? (Select all that apply)

A. Child's weight ✓

B. Child's age ✓

C. Parental preferences

D. Severity of the condition ✓

What are the key components of a pediatric physical assessment? (Select all that apply)

A. Vital signs ✓

B. Growth measurements ✓

C. Parental medical history

D. Developmental screening ✓

Discuss the role of immunizations in preventing infectious diseases in children.

Immunizations are essential for protecting children from infectious diseases by providing immunity against various pathogens, significantly lowering the risk of outbreaks and severe health complications.

Which of the following is a common side effect of pediatric antibiotics?

A. Increased appetite

B. Diarrhea ✓

C. Insomnia

D. Weight gain

Which of the following is a sign of child abuse?

A. Frequent injuries with inconsistent explanations ✓

B. Shyness in social settings

C. Poor academic performance

D. Preference for solitary play

Which of the following are considered developmental screenings for children? (Select all that apply)

A. Denver Developmental Screening Test ✓

B. Blood pressure measurement

C. Ages and Stages Questionnaire ✓

D. Vision screening ✓

How can nurses support children in developing coping mechanisms during hospitalization?

Nurses can support children by using techniques such as play therapy, providing emotional support, and offering education about their medical procedures.

Outline the legal and ethical considerations when obtaining consent for treatment in pediatric patients.

Legal considerations include understanding the age of consent laws, parental authority, and the minor's ability to comprehend treatment. Ethically, practitioners must prioritize the child's best interests, involve them in discussions when possible, and respect parental rights.

What is the primary focus of family-centered care in pediatric nursing?

- A. Prioritizing the child's preferences
- B. Involving the family in the care process ✓
- C. Minimizing family involvement
- D. Ensuring the child is always comfortable

What are common symptoms of asthma in children? (Select all that apply)

- A. Wheezing ✓
- B. Frequent coughing ✓
- C. High fever
- D. Shortness of breath ✓

Which developmental milestone is typically expected in a 12-month-old child?

- A. Walking independently ✓
- B. Speaking in full sentences
- C. Recognizing colors
- D. Tying shoelaces