Describe a strategy you use to improve your Spanish pronunciation and provide examples.

One effective strategy I use to improve my Spanish pronunciation is shadow reading. I listen to audio recordings of native Spanish speakers, such as podcasts or videos, and repeat what they say in real-time. This allows me to focus on the nuances of their pronunciation, intonation, and rhythm, which I then try to replicate. For example, I might listen to a Spanish news broadcast and repeat the sentences as I hear them, paying close attention to how the speakers articulate their words.
