Part 1: Building a Foundation

What is the main function of the subject in a sentence?

undefined. To describe the action undefined. To tell who or what the sentence is about ✓ undefined. To provide additional information undefined. To join sentences together

The main function of the subject is to tell who or what the sentence is about.

Which of the following can be considered a simple subject?

undefined. The dog ✓

undefined. Ran quickly undefined. They ✓ undefined. Under the table

A simple subject is typically a noun or pronoun that tells who or what the sentence is about.

Define a predicate and explain its role in a sentence.

A predicate tells what the subject does or is. It includes the verb and any objects or modifiers.

List two types of predicates and briefly describe each.

1. What is a simple predicate?

A simple predicate is the main verb or verb phrase in a sentence.

2. What is a compound predicate?

A compound predicate consists of two or more verbs that share the same subject.

Two types of predicates are simple predicates and compound predicates. A simple predicate consists of just the verb, while a compound predicate includes two or more verbs that share the same subject.

Part 2: Comprehension and Application

Which of the following sentences contains a compound subject?

undefined. The cat and the dog are playing. ✓ undefined. She runs fast.

undefined. The boy jumps.

undefined. They were happy.

A compound subject consists of two or more subjects that share the same verb.

Identify the complete predicate in the sentence: "The teacher, who was very kind, gave us extra time."

undefined. The teacher undefined. Who was very kind undefined. Gave us extra time ✓

undefined. The teacher, who was very kind

The complete predicate includes the verb and all the words that tell what the subject does.

Explain how subject-predicate agreement affects sentence structure. Provide an example.

Subject-predicate agreement ensures that the subject and verb match in number (singular or plural). For example, 'The dog barks' (singular) vs. 'The dogs bark' (plural).

Choose the sentence where the subject and predicate are correctly identified:

undefined. The children (subject) / play in the park (predicate). ✓ undefined. Play in the park (subject) / the children (predicate).

undefined. The children play (subject) / in the park (predicate).

undefined. In the park (subject) / the children play (predicate).

The correct identification of subject and predicate is crucial for understanding sentence structure.

Write a sentence using a compound predicate and underline the predicates.

A compound predicate includes two or more verbs that share the same subject. Example: 'The dog barks and runs.'

Part 3: Analysis, Evaluation, and Creation

In the sentence "The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog," what is the simple subject?

undefined. The quick brown fox ✓ undefined. Jumps

undefined. Fox

undefined. The lazy dog

The simple subject is the main noun that the sentence is about.

Analyze the sentence: "Despite the rain, the match continued." Identify the subject and the predicate.

undefined. Subject: The match, Predicate: Despite the rain

undefined. Subject: Continued, Predicate: The match

The subject is what the sentence is about, and the predicate tells what happened.

Break down the sentence "The students and the teacher discussed the project after class" into its components and explain the relationship between the subject and predicate.

The subjects are 'The students and the teacher,' and the predicate is 'discuss the project after class.' The predicate describes what the subjects did.

Which sentence best demonstrates a complex sentence structure with a clear subject and predicate?

undefined. The sun sets.

undefined. Although it was late, the team continued to work. ✓ undefined. The cat sleeps.

undefined. Birds fly.

A complex sentence contains an independent clause and at least one dependent clause.

Evaluate the following sentences and identify which ones have a compound predicate:

undefined. She sings and dances beautifully. ✓ undefined. He runs fast.

undefined. They laughed and cried at the movie. ✓ undefined. The dog barks.

A compound predicate consists of two or more verbs that share the same subject.

Create a sentence using both a compound subject and a compound predicate. Explain your choices.

An example could be 'The cat and the dog play and chase each other.' This sentence has both a compound subject and a compound predicate.
